

HAIR BIZ

The Essential Business Guide for Salons

Year 8 Issue 2

MORPH

Education
Extravaganza

AHIA

2014

Finalists Announced

YELLOW

No Longer
a Dirty Hue

NATURE. SCIENCE. BEAUTY.

MATRIX
IMAGINE ALL YOU CAN BE

B I O L A G E

DISCOVER BIOLAGE

HATS OFF TO... PLUSH HAIRDRESSING

Kathleen Lindsay owner and Creative Director of Plush Hairdressing took centre stage at the International Millinery Forum, one of the world's leading international millinery education and networking events, held in Wagga Wagga recently. For the Mayoral Reception, held at the Art Gallery, the affair featured a parade of hats from 14 international tutors adorning models wearing sleek ponytails and Japanese-inspired top knots created by Kathleen and her team.

Kathleen explains: "With a varied range of millinery designs our focus was on the attitude behind each piece. Styling our models into a collection on sleek ponytails and knots seamlessly pinned, formed a perfect platform for the IMF's most talented designs."

The Forum provides milliners from all parts of the world with varying skill-levels an opportunity to come together and learn the latest techniques, skills and millinery trends.

Renowned Melbourne milliners Phillip Rhodes and Rebecca Share featured prominently. Phillip remains the preeminent milliner for Myer, where his eponymous label is their best selling line in designer hats and Rebecca has been chosen to design for the Network Nine celebrities with her creations adorning the heads of Emma Freedman, Giaan Rooney and Livinia Nixon.

This year's event also featured London's Jane Taylor whose designs are favored by the undeniably fabulous Duchess of Cambridge, Kate. Also featured was Sydney milliner Neil Grigg who creates for theatre productions such as Miss Saigon, 42nd Street, Glimpes and Les Miserables.

Well done Kathleen!